ENTERTAINMENT ON COURTHOUSE SQ. STAGE

Saturday, 6-7 p.m. • Wong Chinese Lion Dancers and Kung Fu Demos

The Chinese Lion ritual, more commonly known as "The Lion Dance," is not really a dance routine. It is a set or sets of movements based on ancient Chinese Kung Fu techniques. These ancient techniques (internal and external, hard and soft) are developed through many years of practice. When these techniques reach their maturity level, only then are they ready to be used with the Chinese lion. The power to drive away any evil is directly related to the skill level of the lion player and not to the Chinese lion costume itself.

Saturday, 8-8:30 p.m. • Soul In Motion Players, Inc.

Soul In Motion Players, based in Rockville, was founded by percussionist Michael Friend in 1984. This energetic ensemble features dance, drum and spoken word inspired by the rich heritage of the West African culture. Led by associate director Pam Lassiter Rhone, the troupe features eight dancers and five percussionists. Soul In Motion has been featured around the country at festivals and high-profile corporate events.

Sunday, 3:30-4 p.m. • Bob Brown Puppet Show

Bob Brown Puppets presents "Clowning Around," which will leave audiences shouting with laughter as merry marionettes perform feats of skill and daring usually found only "under the big top." This show is a continual changing collage of clever clowns who juggle, sail through the air on a flying trapeze, dazzle on roller skates, blow up balloons and cavort their way into your hearts. Fun and fantasy, mirth and merriment, laughter and amazement mix together to the sound of a jolly circus band.

Sunday, 6-6:30 p.m. and 8-8:30 p.m. • Elvis E

"Thank you, thank you very much." This Elvis impersonator pays tribute to the King of Rock n' Roll.

MUSIC ON RED BRICK STAGE

Saturday, 5-6 p.m. • The Crowdaddies

A band founded in 1995 on the premise of "why not, it might just work," The Crowdaddies infuse Cajun, Zydeco, funk, swing, soul, reggae, roots and rock into an incomparable, groove-laden sound that is unquestionably its own.

Saturday, 7-8 p.m. • The Reagan Years

These seasoned musicians recreate the sounds of the 1980s, a time when Ronald Reagan was president, MTV first aired, CDs emerged, acid-washed jeans were "cool" and alternative music was called "New Wave." This period has resurfaced in today's entertainment industry. VH1 has multiple segments echoing from the 1980s video generation, radio stations across the United States feature artists from the 1980s in daily "flashback" programs while 1980s anthems have permeated TV commercials.

Sunday, 2-3:30 p.m. • HOTSPUR

HOTSPUR is the sound of rock music evolving. The band features blaring guitars and kinetic synth riffs, intermixing with punchy bass lines and "get-up-and-dance" drums; tight harmonies on top of elaborate soundscapes and soaring melodies. At the core of it all are well-written songs that are passionate and genuine.

FEATURED BANDS ON MAIN STAGE

Andy, who has been riding the breakthrough of his merengue-influenced album "Ironia," took home three Billboard Latin Music Awards on April 27. Along with numerous other awards, Andy has been honored by the governors of two states.

Sunday, 6:30 p.m. • Kelly Bell Band

Named "Best Blues Band in the Mid-Atlantic Region" for nine consecutive years, the Kelly Bell Band has shared the stage with some of the industry's best: James Brown, Black Crowes, Ziggy Marley, Buddy Guy, Bobby "Blue" Band, Matchbox 20, G. Love & Special Sauce, Better than Ezra, Cheap Trick, Bo Diddley and many more. Kelly sums it up best when asked about the origin of Phat Blues Music: "If you could imagine Bob Marley wearing a John Lee Hooker T-shirt, riding in Black Sabbath's tour bus, on his way to Parliament Funkadelic concert, that would be close to our variety show."

Sunday, 8:30 p.m. • Blues Traveler

Formed in Princeton, N.J., in 1983, Blues Traveler (left) grew a passionate regional following while playing at numerous clubs throughout New York, and caught the attention of an executive from A & M records. In 1994, the band hit it big with its fourth album "Four," and the singles "Run-Around" and "Hook." "Run-Around" won a Grammy for Best Rock Vocal Performance by a Duo or Group. The song still holds the record for the longest chart single in the history of the Billboard Charts with 49 weeks on the Hot 100 Singles Chart. "Four" was certified six-times platinum in the United States. Overall, the band has six gold and platinum releases with total sales of more than 10 million albums.
